THE GREAT GAME OF POLITICS

By FRANK R. KENT

Danger In Minnesota

Washington, May 9.—FRIENDS here of Mr. Harold Stassen, whose candidacy for the Republican presidential nomination is of great national interest, are more than a little disturbed over the state of affairs in his home State of Minnesota. In one sense Mr. Stassen is not running there but in another he is.

SOME weeks ago Mr. Stassen, an outstanding internationalist, decided not personally to run against Dr. Hendrick Shipstead, the unrepentant isolationist from Minnesota, for a fourth term as Senator but to defeat him with his close friend and supporter—Governor Thye. The primaries are in July and the outcome most certainly will affect the Stassen White House prospects. No one was better aware of this than Mr. Stassen when he made his decision.

IT IS too much to say that if Mr. Stassen's candidate should be beaten he would be eliminated from the presidential race. But it is not too much to say that his chances would be diminished. It would appear, first, that he had made a rather bad mistake of political judgment; second, that the Republican party of his home State was not enthusiastically with him; third, that the narrow nationalism, to the rejection of which he has contributed so much, far from being dead, was dominant in the State where he should be strongest.

UNDOUBTEDLY that is the way a Stassen defeat in July would be construed in Washington, in London and in Moscow. It would seem a setback for the leading internationalist by the most irreconcilable isolationist—because that is exactly what Senator Shipstead is. Outside Minnesota the powerful local issues which will play a large part in the result would be neither understood nor appreciated. By the enemies of Mr. Stassen a parallel would be drawn with the 1944 defeat of Mr. Willkie by Governor Dewey in the Wisconsin primaries which Mr. Willkie interpreted as a defeat for the principle of international co-operation for which he stood. As a result, he withdrew from the field, an embittered man.

THOUGH the contest may easily be decided by the above-mentioned local issues, the result in Minnesota certainly will have not only a national but an international effect. Renomination of Senator Shipstead, who was one of the two senators to vote against the United Nations Charter, would be a blow to the Stassen candidacy but also it would deeply distress every friend of international co-operation, as exemplified by the United Nations, all over the world. Stassen supporters by no means feel that defeat in these primaries is likely.

GRANT INCREASES TO BENSALEM TEACHERS

$150 Annually Over Mandated State Increments;
Tax Rate Increased

SOME RESIGNATIONS

CORNWELLS HEIGHTS, May 9.—Faculty members of Bensalem Township public schools were each granted $150 per year increase over the mandated state increments when members of the board of school directors met in the high school building here last evening.

Joseph Seigel was the presiding officer.

The tax rate for the coming year was fixed at 22 mills, an increase of two mills; and per capita tax was increased $1, it being set at $4. The increases are necessitated, it is stated by the directors, because of general increase in costs of all items, and also by reduction in assessed valuation reported on the 1946 duplicate from the county seat. The reduction in assessed valuation represents about a half million dollars, it is stated.

Among recent resignations of faculty members are the following: Mrs. Garbarine, teacher in upper grades at Penn Valley school, who left April 30th to join her husband in Seattle, Wash., the latter having been released recently by the navy; Mrs. Jane Phillips, Edgington school, resigned to join her husband in Delaware; Mrs. Geraldine Crane, teacher of grades one and two at Andalusia school, who will reside and teach in New Jersey. The post left vacant by Mrs. Garbarine is being filled for the balance of the term by John Bickler, Axel Kleinsorg, has been granted a sabbatical leave for next term, he planning to work toward his master's degree at the University of Iowa.

The Farmers National Bank of Bucks County was named as depository for school funds for next term, and Norman C. Gaugler was appointed treasurer.

The senior vesper services will be presented on Sunday, May 26th, at four p. m., in the high school auditorium. The speaker will be the Rev. Herman Doh, pastor of Andalusia Baptist Church. Commencement is set for May 27th, with admission by ticket only. Schools will close on Tuesday, June 4th.

MAJOR GEN'L EDWARD MARTIN IS SPEAKER AT POLITICAL MEETING IN PHILADELPHIA

Major General Edward Martin, Governor of Pennsylvania, spoke at a political meeting in the Broadwood Hotel, Philadelphia, last evening.

Excerpts from the governor's remarks follow:

Mr. Chairman and Fellow-Americans:

I like to come to Philadelphia. It is always a real pleasure. Your great community has never lost its touch with the rural communities of this state. You have never forgotten that you are one of the family of 67 counties that make this our own outstanding Commonwealth.

America, as we know it, was really formed in this historic city. From the little settlements of the Swedes, the Dutch and the Quakers, it has come to be one of the great centers of the world.

The Declaration of Independence, the framing of the Constitution, the Liberty Bell, the Betsy Ross House, the Old Swedes Church, the Treaty Elm and Franklin's Grave are Philadelphia history and national history. Early business organizations still surviving, outstanding foundations of cultural and spiritual attainment, and the solid, continuing Americanism of Philadelphia make it a proper place in which to discuss Americanism and the dangers that confront it.

Wars, propaganda and world confusion have raised up among us many individuals and groups who are preaching doctrines foreign to the ideals of the Founding Fathers. They believe in deficit financing.

They would pile tax upon tax. They would set up a super-state. They preach class hatreds. They talk liberalism and work for totalitarianism. In dealing with them we must realize:

1. High taxes and deficit financing are mortal dangers. Chief Justice Marshall said the power to tax is the power to destroy. All history shows he was right.

2. Centralization of government and government by men and not by law can and will destroy a republic.

The United States is a Republic. Under the Constitution it must be. A Republic is a State in which the sovereign power resides in the people and is exercised for the people by representatives elected by the people. Authority exercised through executive orders is dangerous power. In all the years before the month of March, 1933, only 224 executive orders had been issued. Since that time the number has been increased to 9715. We have been governed by decree. The menace of dictatorship is clear.

3. We now are interdependent upon each other. Nothing can be permitted which endangers the health and security of the individual citizen.

4. We must recognize a liberal as one who desires equality under the law and equality of economic opportunity. We must recognize individuals and not masses. The American is able to do his own thinking.

SOUND SENTIMENT FOR A WORK PROGRAM

Committee of Chamber of Commerce Asks People
For Suggestions

MAIL 260 LETTERS

Approximately 30 per cent of the questionnaires mailed to business men and residents of the Bristol area to ascertain their suggestions for projects which should be promoted by the proposed Bristol Chamber of Commerce, have been returned. "There were 260 letters mailed," says A. H. Queen, chairman of the proposed organization.

A temporary work-program committee headed by Mr. Queen has been meeting and conferring upon a program for an outline of work to be done by the new organization. The committee decided upon six projects to be suggested. These projects were outlined in a letter and the recipient asked to mark the suggestions which he felt have merit and should be considered as part of the Chamber's work-program.

The letter reads:

In a sincere effort to plan a successful work program for the proposed Bristol Chamber of Commerce, the temporary work-program committee is making suggested recommendations as below. We do hope you will review these very carefully marking an X in front of the items that you feel have merit and should be considered as part of the Chamber's work program.

In the blank space will you please write in your own suggestions which may be different from any included on these sheets.

It is only with the fullest co-operation of us all that this program can ever really succeed and we feel sure that you will do your utmost for the success of this program.

The following are suggestions for a "Program of Work" for the proposed Bristol Chamber of Commerce.

FOOD COLLECTIONS ARE PLANNED HERE TO AID STARVING

Catholic Churches Announce Plans To Members
For Their Cooperation

NEED IS VERY GREAT

All Members of The Churches
Are Asked To Aid
The Campaign

In response to the plea of Pope Pius XII, asking for food to feed the starving people of Europe and the Far East, Catholics throughout the Archdiocese of Philadelphia, which includes this area, are urged to co-operate. In a letter from Dennis Cardinal Dougherty, Archbishop of Philadelphia, an appeal was issued to all churches in his diocese to collect food for the starving people of the world.

In the Bristol district, St. Mark's will have two persons appointed on each street to collect food from the homes of Catholics. St. Ann's will have the children from the ninth and 10th grades of St. Ann's school make collections, with the Sisters in charge. In Crofton, St. Thomas will also have the school children do the collecting. All three parishes will use their schools as the central collecting point, where the food will be packed and shipped by the Sisters, to the War Relief Services in New York.

St. Charles, located in Bensalem Township, will make known at all Masses on Sunday, that a special collection will be taken on the following Sunday to buy can goods. The food will be purchased at wholesale price and will be packed and shipped directly from the factory.

There is an estimate of twenty million children steadily developing diseases in Europe and the Far East through the lack of food, that they will leave a mark on their lives if they should survive. In the Far East, although food has always been a problem, the situation is so critical that millions are doomed to death. Cardinal Dougherty's letter reads in part: "From every corner of the earth appeals are being made constantly to our Holy Father to come once again to their rescue, lest they starve to death as multitudes of them have already perished from hunger."

"From His affectionate heart the Common Father of us all once more begs us to help him to keep the wolf of starvation away from the doors even of little children."

The campaign for contributions of can goods opens formally Sunday. On this date at all Masses a special appeal will be made to all Catholics to give unstintingly in the drive to help feed the starving people of the world.

GREENLAND AND ICELAND

The United States has been granted permanent bases of unspecified location on strategic Greenland, according to "authoritative" information from Sweden.
Occupied by United States forces
on a protective basis since 1940,
the big island now has been returned to Danish patrol and control in the reported negotiations with Copenhagen.

The United States once established claims to northern Greenland based on discoveries by Admiral Peary. These were relinquished when this country bought the Virgin Islands from Denmark
in 1916. In the light of the coming role of the lands of the Arctic seas in the aviation age, it becomes increasingly important that America look to bases on what many military experts regard its new northern frontier. The acquisition of air and naval posts in Greenland, negotiated with the friendly consent of Denmark,
would seem to be a forward-looking step in this direction.

To the east of Greenland lies Iceland, which declared its independence from Denmark in 1944.
The British occupied Iceland in 1940 to prevent its seizure from the Germans. United States forces replaced the British there the next year. Some of them still remain and are pointed to by Russian mouthpieces in reply to demands that Soviet troops get out of Iran and elsewhere.

But the strongest parties in Iceland not only are withholding demands that U. S. troops get out right away, but are disposed to grant an American application for permanent bases.

TIME TO CLEAN HOUSE

It is a good point which is made by Howard Bruce, wartime director of Army materiel, in his appeal to President Truman to speed up the sale of surplus commodities. These goods are needed now by private citizens, including thousands of former service men who want to go into business for themselves—and, in addition to that, the money to buy them is at hand.

By selling them immediately
the government can take millions of floating dollars out of circulation and thus aid in the war on inflation.

Mr. Bruce's argument for a vigorous disposal policy is likewise based on the fact that the country can thus relieve current shortages, further the expansion of civilian production and employment and increase Federal revenue. This is all sound logic and the President will do well to insist that the departments concerned act upon it.

Indicating the delays which program to date is the statement by Mr. Bruce that $32,000,000,000 worth of goods is still held by the government and that only $2,000, 000,000 worth has been turned into cash. Not all of the remaining stocks are marketable—approximately one-third is useful only as junk—but there is no good reason for letting them lie
any longer in storehouses in this country and abroad. Most certainly it is time for a grand housecleaning.

The Great Game of Politics

They are convinced that they will be nominated and that that will greatly enhance the Stassen prestige and strengthen the United Nations organization with the launching of which Mr. Stassen has considerable to do.

HOWEVER, they do admit that Senator Shipstead is making a much more cunning and effective fight than they had believed possible. He strongly stresses the local issues, pictures Governor Thye as a hand-picked Stassen stooge, and charges that the campaign against him is being engineered from New York and the East. Also, he has developed more support in the country party than was expected. In addition, remnants of the old Farm-Labor party with which Dr. Ship-stead was originally affiliated, are rallying to his cause. And it is reliably reported that the wicked Democrats, with slight contest in their own party, are preparing to enter the Republican primary on the Shipstead side on the theory that his nomination not only would make it easier to elect the Democratic State ticket this year but would damage Mr. Stassen as a national figure in 1948.

ON THE other side, the Stassen ticket has the best of the machine
support in both counties and cities.
Mr. Stassen has a greater personal following than any other Minnesotan and the Physie campaign will be adequately financed. The real danger to Mr. Stassen, so far as these primaries are concerned, is overconfidence. The fact that he and his aides are today looking clearly at the realities of the situation and are not underestimating
the strength of Senator Shipstead, who, in 18 Senate years, has made few enemies and many friends in Minnesota, is the best reason for believing in Governor Thye's nomination—hand-picked though he may be.

HORSE SHOW TO BENEFIT FUND FOR HOSPITAL BLD'G

Doylestown Emergency
Hospital Plans to Erect
New Wing

SHOW ON MAY 11TH

To Be Held on Fulmor Miller Farms, Cold Spring
Creamery Road

Doylestown Emergency Hospital expects to take the first step toward the erection of a new wing when the Bucks County Horse Show is held Saturday, May 11th, at Fulmor Miller Farms on Cold Spring Creamery Road.

The hospital, for whose benefit the event has been arranged, is owned by the Village Improvement Association, of which Mrs. Isaac J. Vanartsdalen is president; and since it is now without debt the entire proceeds of the horse show can be devoted to enlargement of the institution's facilities.

Mrs. James M. Shellenberger, who acts with Mrs. Charles Shiffe as co-chairman of the Hospital and Visiting Nurse Committee of the Village Improvement Association, stressed in an interview yesterday the hospital's immediate needs.

"Our hospital is faced with a rapidly growing demand for its services," said Mrs. Shellenberger. "It is called upon to care for patients not only from Doylestown and vicinity but from places as far away as Lambertville and Ringoes, N. J. We need more space. As yet, we have no children's ward, no isolation room. Our X-ray department has inadequate space. The kitchen is too small. To relieve these conditions we must build an addition to the hospital."

"We are about ready to begin our annual drive for contributions to the hospital's support. To give added interest to the drive, the V. I. A. and the Junior Woman's Club have sponsored the horse show to be held on Mr. Fulmor Miller's Farm. All funds collected in the drive and all money contributions made this year, including those received from the horse show, will be placed in the building fund."

"The hospital receives no State aid nor any other financial assistance except the money contributed in our annual drives. So we hope Doylestown and all Bucks County will respond as generously as they have in the past."

The show will be the first in Bucks County to be licensed by the American Horse Show Association. Arthur Naul of Doylestown, who has volunteered to direct it, brings to his task experience gained in ten years' management of the National Horse Show in Madison Square Garden, New York City. Mr. Naul is also former secretary of the American Horse Shows Association.

It is under the auspices of the Bucks County Horse Show Association that the event will be staged. Officers of the association are Albert A. Bliss, Jr., president; David Burpee, vice-president; Henry D. Paxton, vice-president; Mr. Naul, secretary and manager, and William J. Kane, treasurer.

The horse show committee comprises J. Thomas Norris, chairman; Warren B. DeLong, Mrs. Arthur Hanna, Mrs. Henry D. Paxton, J. Harley Nash, Mr. Biles and Mr. Naul. Mr. W. Perrin Iverson and Mrs. George W. School will form the show's field committee. The veterinarians to the show will be Dr. Edwin P. Taylor, Mrs. Mary K. Amadon and Dr. Roger S. Amadon.

Exhibitors at the show will find famous figures among the judges. Col. William H. Henderson, of Easton, N. J., will judge three-and-five-gaited saddle horses and also horsemanship. The colonel is a director of the National Horse Show.

A side attraction that is expected to appeal to the general public as well as to fanciers of horse flesh will be the Country Fair to be staged in a tent under the supervision of the Village Improvement Association and the Junior Woman's Club.

Mrs. William F. Greenawalt is chairman of the Country Fair. Features of the fair with the committee members in charge are: Cafeteria, Mrs. Frank Good; hot sandwich booth, Mrs. Theodore Weller; dairy booth, Mrs. William J. THE more times we say "Yes" to requests for loans, the more business we do. And since making personal loans of $10 to $250 or more is our only business—that's mighty important to us. Proof that we do say "Yes": 4 out of 5 who ask for a loan at 'Personal' get it.

1. RIGHT NOW we are making loans for Easter shopping and Spring needs.

2. RIGHT NOW we are making loans to finance the purchase of refrigerators, radios, washing machines, etc.

'Personal' makes loans to employed men and women—married or single. You can get cash on your signature alone or on your furniture or auto.

Don't borrow unnecessarily—but if a loan is to your advantage, we'll be glad to say "Yes." The odds are 4 to 1 you'll get it at 'Personal'.

Faith Clarke's
SHOPPING TIPS FOR BUDGETEERS

RESTRICTED DIET folks are delighted with the Snellenburg Food Shop's section devoted to their special foods. The stock of special dietetic foods includes sugar and starch free products, such as candies, cookies, puddings, gelatine desserts, canned fruits, etc. Why not stop and chat with the clerk in charge? These foods also make nice gifts for "dietetic" friends! (Chestnut St., 1st fl.)

A CONVENIENCE, at home or traveling, is the new and beautiful "Greyhound" 2 1/2 lb. iron. I not only suggest it for a Mother's Day gift, but for an "extra" iron in any household. Also, it is perfect for the career woman in a pint-sized apartment. In spite of the good fact that it takes up little room in a traveling bag, it is due to the removable handle, this new iron has three heat controls. The "wall stand" is tops. Made for A. C. current, $6.20. Snellenburg Housefurnishings Dept. (3rd fl.)

"AGELESS" HATS for the mature woman are a specialty in the Second Floor Millinery Dept. of the Snellenburg Store. A hat can make a woman look older or younger. This particular group of millinery is designed to do the latter, with flattery! Just now the array runs from the smartly tailored to the glamorous flower creations of the season, and I do want you who are interested to see them. I was delighted to learn that quite a few daughters are bringing mothers in for Mother's Day millinery treats! Prices range from $9.75 upward. (2nd fl.)

BE GENEROUS. Give those mothers Mother's Day presents that are as important as your purses or pants pockets will permit! Have they watches? Are the watches modern enough? A mother would like nothing better than a small beauty of a time-piece ticking away on her wrist, reminding her, hour by hour, of the giver. You know how "alive" a watch can seem! The Snellenburg Jewelry Dept. has received a group of handsome Elgin watches for women. They are priced variously. To name two or three—a "Lady Elgin" with a round, pink gold dial, 19 jewels, and a 14 kt. gold-plated case costs $60, an "Elgin De Luxe" with 17 jewels and a 10 kt. case costs $45. Two other models are priced at $52.50 and $67.50 respectively. Tax included! I hope those "Budgeteers' mothers or father-pieces up to date. (2nd fl. will be surprised. (1st fl.)

P.S. Do send clippings with mail orders when you can! Phone free (5c, 10c, and 15c out-of-town calls only). Penna.—EXT. 10160; Jersey—WX-1150. Shop located Market, 11th to 12th Sts., Phila.—through to 1125-29 Chestnut St. Be hearin' from you! Faithfully, FAITH.

AT LAST—new metal dog beds! Slightly lifted from floor. Unperforated sides that exclude drafts. Easily kept clean. Mattresses included. 23 x 14 in. size $3.95, 26 x 17 in. $4.95. Good for summer or winter. Veterinarians declare that floor-sleeping gives dogs rheumatism, colds. Nice Dog Supplies Section at this shop, Snellenburgs. Marvelous South American leather leashes cost but 99c to $1.10. Many dog foods, etc., etc. Sporting Goods Dept. (3rd fl.)

TILE TABLES are both decorative and convenient. Buy one or two as Mother's Day Gifts or for your own porch, lawn, sunroom or living room. Use tile tables for drinks, coffee, plants, magazines, etc. Pretty "checkerboard" tile tables, in various colors atop of black wrought iron bases, are square or oblong, priced very moderately in the Garden Dept. of the Snellenburg Store—$2.25, $3.25, and $4.49. Select while the assortment is wide. However, all are pretty enough to order by mail or phone. (1st fl.)

GARDENER GIFT. Whether it be pots on a windowsill or a landscaped estate, the owner of a "garden" will appreciate (as will you if you're garden minded!) the "New Garden Encyclopedia" edited by E. L. D. Seymour, D. B. A. The large book of 1380 pages is a 1946 edition. It is replete with information and advice about flowers, fruits, vegetables. Moreover, it's indexed. A buy at $4. Nice for Mother's Day gifting and grand for taking to or sending the vacation hostess. Snellenburg Book Section. (1st fl.)

FUR PROTECTION is at its best in the Snellenburg vaults, where furs are safe from fire, summer heat, moths, and the like. Just phone the store about yours. Better do it early. The charge is 2% of your own valuation, with minimum charges as follows: fur coat, jacket, or cape, $3; fur scarf, $2; fur-trimmed cloth coat, suit, or untrimmed cloth coat, suit, or man's overcoat, $2. The store's fur processing is a deluxe treatment that cleans, glazes, lusterizes, and buttons, will tighten hooks, eyes, and will sew loose linings. Or perhaps you'll be interested in the re-modeling service that brings a coat that many "Budgeteers' mothers or father-pieces up to date. (2nd fl. balcony.)

All the Charm and Graciousness of the architecture that stems from Colonial days is inherent in this six-room dwelling built of white-washed stone and shingles. The house has a roofed porch at the right, opening out of the living room which runs full width of the building.

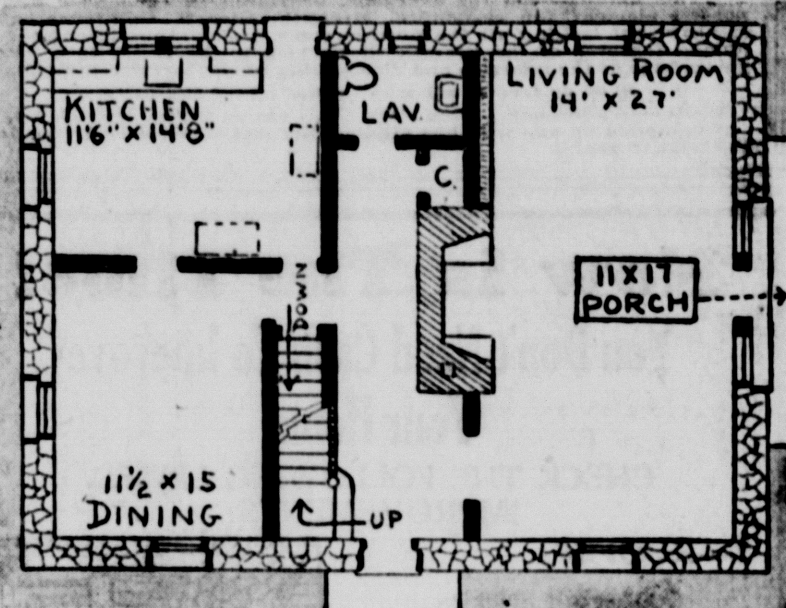

By MARION CLYDE McCARROLL

EVERYBODY loves the charm and graciousness of the architecture which stems from Colonial days. There is something in its atmosphere so homelike and hospitable, so comfortable and relaxing, that its universal and enduring popularity is readily understood.

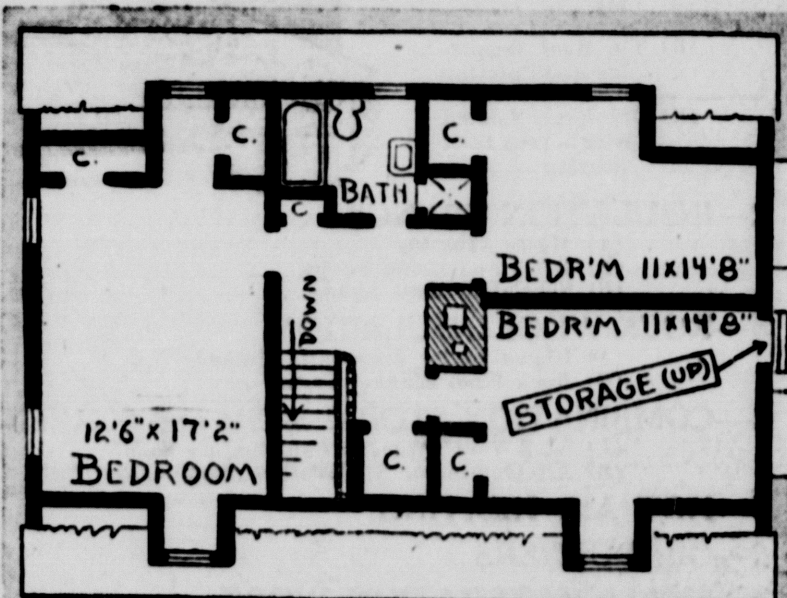

No matter how many or varied the types of houses offered to modern home buyers, there will always be a large number in the early American tradition. Some of them, of course, follow more faithfully than others the exact lines laid down by Colonial builders. Some show, here and there, certain changes and adaptations influenced by changing times. But all of them are characterized by that satisfying feeling of peacefulness and permanence which gives these houses their most appealing quality.

Shown here is such a house, retaining all the charm of the past while at the same time fitting in perfectly with the spirit of today. Well suited to either country or suburb, the six-room dwelling is built of whitewashed stone and shingles, with steep pitched roof and dormer windows. While small, it is so well planned that the interior effect is one of roominess, with the living room and the master bedroom each running the full width of the house on opposite sides of it. Living room, dining room and kitchen, with a convenient lavatory and shower at the far end of the front hall, comprise the ground floor plan, with three bedrooms and a bathroom upstairs.

In the living room, a huge fireplace, with Dutch ovens on each side, occupies the center of the long side of the room. Across from the fireplace, Architect Edward G. Wallace, who designed the house, has put a door leading out on to the porch roofed over by a gable.

Living Room, Dining Room and kitchen, with a front hall lavatory, comprise the ground floor plan. Note the big fireplace in living room.

Upstairs, the House boasts six closets, two in the master bedroom, two in the hall. Smaller bedrooms, of equal size, run crosswise of house.

This View of the Long Living Room shows how the furnishing and decorative scheme can be planned around the fireplace as the central feature. The Dutch ovens on either side of the fireplace provide authentic Colonial atmosphere from which the rest of the furniture takes its cue.

Dr. Miner H. A. Evans Dies; Noted Psychiatrist

BOSTON, May 9.—Dr. Miner H. A. Evans, 65, prominent as a psychiatrist in Boston for more than 40 years, and as a consultant in many criminal trials, including that of the notorious Millen-Faber gang, died Sunday at his home, 49 Windsor road, Wellesley Hills. A native of Westford, he was graduated from Boston Latin School, and from the Harvard medical school in 1902. He was the father of Mrs. Thomas B. Knox, who until two years ago resided on Radcliffe street, Bristol, Pa.

Dr. Evans became assistant physician at the Danvers State Hospital and later became associated with the Adams Nervine Asylum. He established a private practice in Roxbury in 1906, and also was associated with the neurological services of the Boston Dispensary and the Carney Hospital.

He was diagnostician for two years for Dr. Elwood Worcester, who, in 1907, inaugurated the Emmanuel Movement for providing religious assistance to neuroses sufferers.

Later, he became associated with the Dorchester Free Dispensary, the Boston Psychopathic Hospital and the Boston City Hospital neurological clinic. At the time of his death, he was consulting physician in neurology and psychiatry at the Quincy City Hospital and visiting physician in neurology at Boston City Hospital.

In 1912, he entered Boston University law school as a result of his conviction that most lawyers were not equipped to handle medical evidence. He was graduated in 1915, and later admitted to the Massachusetts and the United States bars. In his later medico-legal practice, he prepared the evidence in many important cases.

His offices for many years were in the Hotel Kenmore and in the Lister Building, on Commonwealth avenue.

He was a member of the Massachusetts Medical Society, the American Medical Association, American Psychiatric Association, New England Society of Psychiatry and Neurology, Massachusetts Society of Psychiatry and Neurology, Newton Medical Society, the Clinical Club and the Dorchester Physicians Club. He was a life member of Rabbani Lodge, A. F. & A. M.

FLEETWINGS DROPS 4TH STRAIGHT GAME

Fleetwings dropped its fourth straight tilt in the Bristol Suburban League Tuesday evening as it was blanked by the Edgely A. C. 3-0, on Leedom's field.

The "Wingers" had but one hit, that being a single by Talph in the third frame. Karl Leinheiser pitched effective ball for the Edgelyites and was aided by fine fielding on the parts of Ralph Linck and "B" Hunter, whose catching of fly balls robbed several Fleetwingers out of hits.

Al Doster gave the fans a thrill in the first inning when he drove a high fly into the canal in left field. The ball was foul by inches, the batter losing a home run.

DE WITT'S HOME-RUN WINS FOR ROHM & HAAS

Manager "Wally" DeWitt's home run with two on base in the fifth inning gave the Rohm and Haas team an 8-4 victory over Harriman Tuesday evening on the high school field.

DeWitt's drive, a tremendous clout over the centerfield fence, scored Simons and Sackville ahead of him.

Both teams made six safeties, with Trapp leading Rohm and Haas with a triple and single and Tazik having two out of three for Harriman.

"Pat" Carnevale proved a fine relief hurler for the winners while "Hal" Shackleton went the route for the sixth ward team.
